

INSTITUT

SIMONE DE BEAUVROIR

INSTITUTE

FEBRUARY 17, 1993

NOTE: Most items in this Bulletin are from the mail we receive on a regular basis. This information is passed along to you for your interest.

EVENTS, CONFERENCES, JOBS, NEWS OF INTEREST

SDEB EVENTS

Black History Month: Juliana Abbenyi will give a lecture on "Women and Gender in Beba Folktales" at the Institute. Juliana, a native of Cameroun, is a graduate student in Comparative Literature at McGill. Note: Joanne St-Lewis, Executive Director of LEAF has been rescheduled to give a lecture on Tuesday, March 30 at 19:00.

Fellows Seminar: A reminder that the next presentation will be held in room 206 at Lonergan University College on March 5. Nilima Mandal-Giri will speak on "South Asian Women in Science in Montreal" and Yael Gluck will speak on "Passion, Sex and Reproduction."

Gloria Steinem: The Institute is co-sponsoring, with Cole Bookstores, a public talk by Gloria Steinem on March 8 at noon in the Hall Bldg. Tickets are $5 and will disappear rapidly. If you want a ticket, get $5 to Di-Anne or Susan as soon as you can because we have already had demands for tickets based on the rumour of this presentation.

EVENTS

Reproductive Technology

SCPA presents "Reproductive Technologies: Holding the Future in Our Hands" on Wednesday, February 17 from 18:00-20:00 at 2149 MacKay. The Moderator will be attorney Anne-France Goldwater. Panelists include: Dr. Pierre Miron, Gwynne Basen, Jacky Boivin and Sonia Le Bris.

Lise Bissonnette

Le Département d'études françaises vous invitent à une rencontre avec Lise Bissonnette, Directrice du Devoir, le 1 mars à 18:00, cinéma J.A. de Sève. Sa conférence portera sur: "Culture(s) et politique au Québec: Nouveaux enjeux". Entrée libre.

Women in Science

Merck Frosst Pharmaceutical cordially invites you to their Kirkland research laboratories on February 22 for an event on "Women in Science: Exploring Career Opportunities, Challenges and Growth." The guest speaker will be Dr. Mary Francis Richardson, 1992 Canadian Professor of the Year. There will also be a panel discussion on women scientists. Please call 428-3030 for time and schedule details.

Loyola Peace Institute

The next presentation in the public lecture series sponsored by the Loyola Peace Institute will be held on Wednesday, March 10 from 16:00-17:30 p.m. Concordia History professor Norman Ingram will speak on "French Feminist Pacifism and the Politics of Marginality: 1930-1939." Call 848-7799 for details.

Science College

The Science College public lecture series invites you to hear Dr. Charles R. Gallistel from UCLA on Thursday, February 18 at 20:30 in the Hall Bldg. Room 110. Dr. Gallistel will speak on "The Computational Brain." Call 848-2595 for information.

Video Screen for Black Herstory Month

On Friday, February 19 at 19:30, The Concordia Women's Centre and the NFB are sponsoring four video's for Black Herstory Month. The screening will take place at Mugshots on the 6th floor of the Hall Bldg. Admission is free. Call 848-7431 for information.

Breakfast at Campus Ministry

Pancakes, and crepes will be served by Campus Ministry on Friday, February 19 from noon to 13:30 p.m at Belmore House, 2496 West Broadway. A donation of $3 is requested. A reminder that the Ash Wednesday services will be held at the Loyola Chapel on February 24 at 12:05.

Women's Ecumenical Network of Quebec
The Canadian Churches Forum for Global Ministries are pleased to present prize-winning novelist Marianne Katoppo on Wednesday, March 3 from 10:00-noon at Fulford Hall, 1444 Union Ave (beside the Promenades de la Cathédrale, McGill Métro). Ms. Katoppo is well-known for her book, Compassionate and Free: An Asian Woman's Theology and for her involvement in the ecumenical movement in Indonesia. Call Elizabeth Hutchinson and the Anglican Diocese of Montreal at 843-6577 for further details. Free admission/freewill collection.

Montreal History Group

Canadian Studies at McGill invites you to "Les jeudis d'histoire" at 3495 Peel, room 303 at 20:00. Tina

Loo will speak on "Being Framed: Photography and the Representation of Criminality" on April 1; Tamara Myers will speak on "Women Policing Women on the Streets of Montreal" on April 15; Steven Maynard will present "Depositions of Desire: Legal Representations of Sexuality as Historical Evidence" on April 29; and Lorna McLean will speak on "Function and Form of Law in Nineteenth-Century Ontario" on May 13, 1993.

Classics Public Lecture

Christopher W. Marshall will speak on "Copy-Cat Killers in Greek Tragedy" on Tuesday, March 2 at 19:00 at Lonergan University College. All are welcome.

AWARDS/FELLOWSHIPS

NSERC Women Faculty Award
Carleton University, Department of Earth Sciences, solicits eligible nominations for the NSERC Women's Faculty Award. Successful candidates will have a strong research background in earth sciences and preference will be given to nominees not more than five years from their doctoral degree. This appointment will lead to a tenure-track position and will commence July 1, 1994. Apply before April 30, 1993. Consult "jobs" board for details.

Simon Fraser Endowed Professorship Award

Simon Fraser University, Women's Studies, a senior candidate for the Ruth Wynn Woodward Endowed Professorship in Women's Studies. This one year appointment will begin in September 1994. Apply before June 15, 1993.

Asahi Shimbun Fellowships

The Cultural Projects Division of Asahi's Tokyo head office invites applications for the 1993 Asahi Fellowship Programme. The 18 annual fellowships allow scholars to pursue work in their field while staying in Japan for one year. Applications are accepted until February 28, 1993. Full details are posted on the "academic" board.

SCHOLARSHIPS/RESEARCH AWARDS

Social Science Federation of Canada The SSFC announces a research competition sponsored by the Portuguese government. The prizes will be for research in subjects related to countries of Portuguese extraction. Refer to the "academic" board.

Netherwood Foundation Scholarships
Please advise your student that The Netherwood Foundation offers four $4000 scholarships for 1993-94. The scholarships are offered for New Brunswick women entering second year post secondary education. Applications are posted on the "academic" board. The closing date is July 15, 1993.

CALL FOR PAPERS/SUBMISSIONS

Latin American Perspectives invites papers for an issue on Women in Latin America. Articles from both an historical and contemporary perspectives are suitable. "While this journal is Marxist-orientated and anti-imperialist, there is a conscious effort to publish a diversity of viewpoints." Submissions should be directed to the Coordinating Editor, LAP, P.O. box 5703, Riverside, CA 92517-5703.

Abstracts are requested for the next Modern Language Association Convention in Toronto for a panel on lesbian eroticism/sexuality/sex. Also requested are essays on the teaching and or politics of queer theory for an issue of Concerns, the journal of the Women's Caucus of the Modern Language Association. Abstracts should be directed to Karla Jay, P.O. Box 1235 New York, N.Y. 10008-1235.

Please advise your students that NEXUS is soliciting student submissions for regular annual volumes of their Canadian Student Journal of Anthropology. NEXUS offers students the opportunity to share and generate their ideas. Students interested in submitting papers should consult the "students" bulletin board for complete details.

The annual meeting of the American Society of Criminology will be held in Phoenix, Arizona on October 29-30, 1993. Papers on the issue of sexual harassment will be considered, panel discussions are encouraged in order to expand current debate on this issue. Contact Phoebe Morgan Stambaugh, The School of Justice Studies, Arizona State Univ. Tempe Arizona 85287-0403 before March 8, 1993.

Les Cahiers de la femme sollicitent des contributions pour le numéro qui sortira à l'été sous le thème Femmes et invalidité. Il y'a trois parties: Les mythes et les stéréotypes entourant les invalidités; la question de la violence faite aux femmes handicapées; et des plans d'action visant à promouvoir la participation entière et équitable des femmes handicapées. Vos idées et suggestions sont les bienvenues. Envoyer votre article avant le 30 avril. Voir le babillard "academic".

Marion Lynn is editing a text on families in Canada in the 1990's for Nelson Canada. She is seeking contributions that deal with families that are diverse because of race, class, ethnicity and region. The deadline for contributing to this volume was early February; however, she can be reached by FAX: (416) 737-5700, ext. 55356. See the "academic" board.

CONFERENCES

L'Institut de recherches et d'études féministes (IREF) organise un Débat-midi Jeunes et féminismes mercredi le 3 mars au Pavillon Hubert-Aquin, 1255, rue Saint-Denis, salle A.3025. Conférencières invitées: Josée Boileau, Evelyn Chamard, et Céline Métiver. Les animatrices sont Line Gosselin et Maryse Darsigny, étudiantes au 2e cycle en Histoire, UQAM. Renseignement: 987-6587.

Le 61e Congrès de L'ACFAS, Objectif Science aura lieu du 17 au 21 mai 1993 à Rimouski, Québec. Voir le babillard "academic".

Le Comité des femmes en milieu universitaire (CFMU) de la Fédération québécoise des professeures et professeurs d'université (FQPPU) vous invitent à une grande Journée des femmes vendredi le 26 mars à l'Université Laval. Le thème de cette rencontre est La vie quotidienne des professeures d'université. Pour renseignement: Huguette Dagenais (GREMF) (418) 656-5418/656-3942 ou (418) 881-2119. Voir le babillard "academic".

JOBs

UQAM, département de musique, poste en pédagogie musicale, 1er juin 1993. Faire parvenir votre c.v. avant le 26 février 1993.

UQAM, poste de professeur/e ou professeur/e régulier\ère au département des sciences de l'éducation en didactique générale, 1er juin 1993. Faire parvenir votre c.v. avant le 5 mars 1993.

York University, Faculty of Environmental Studies, (subject to budgetary approval) a contractually-limited Assistant Professor position for two years in a combination of critical-pedagogy, creativity and communications, and adult learning. Apply before March 1, 1993.

University of Victoria, Dept. of Sociology, tenure-track Assistant Professor position in feminist theory with training in classical and contemporary theory, July 1, 1993. Candidates must posses a doctoral degree in sociology. Apply before February 15, 1993.

NEWS OF INTEREST

Ecole Normale Supérieure

Dr. Florence Stevens has sent a notice of competition for admission to the Ecole Normale Supérieure for graduate studies. Would you inform your top students that applications must be submitted by April 16, 1993. Please consult the "academic" board for further information.

Studio D, NFB

Studio D, The Women's Studio of the National Film Board of Canada has issued a call for submission for its 1993 Scholarship Program in New Initiatives in Film. The competition is open to intermediate and senior level film and videomakers. The submission deadline is March 1, 1993.

The Centre for AIDS Services of Montréal Women is looking for volunteers in either French or English for it's Centre for Aids Services of Montreal, (Women). Volunteers are needed to answer crisis calls, help in fund raising events, babysit, and accompany women for testing. Dr. Elizabeth Henrik has provided brochures concerning the AIDS Centre for Montréal Women which have been posted on the "social concerns, student, and academic" bulletin boards.

A brochure concerning the services offered by the Mouvement contre le viol et l'inceste at their Place des Arts, Mont Royal and Park métro stations. Information and contribution information has been posted on the "social concerns" board.

The 1993 calendar from the Institute of Social Ecology has been posted on the "academic" board.

Graduate Awards Officer Patricia Verret has sent changes to the ranking forms for Graduate Fellowship Competition 1993/94. Copies of the memo and forms are located on the "academic" board.

The Lacolle Centre is accepting applications for the months of May, June, July and August 1993. Please send your requests in writing by March 1, 1993 to Diane Moffat at L-WG 204.

Campus Ministry wishes to inform you that a weekly Eucharist will be celebrated downtown each Monday at 12:05 in the Chapel of St. James Anglican Church on Bishop street, just north of St. Catherine. The Eucharist is celebrated daily at 12:05 in the Loyola Chapel. Campus Ministry can be reached by calling 3588 or 3591.

The latest issue of CUPFA News is posted on the "academic" board.

Announcements for new films are posted on the "cultural events" board.

Information on new book publications, book sales, new journals and solicitations are posted on the "academic" board.

SdeB Reading Room Hours for Reading Week (next week) are: Monday 16h-19:30, Tues. 11h-15:00, Wed. 11h-15:00, and Thurs. 9:30h-13:00.